

Negative Thoughts ~ Positive Thoughts

Thoughts are real, yet fleeting things.
They're weighted with body, yet endowed with wings.

We send forth thoughts to fill this world with Good or Ill.
Bestowing blessings to hearth-fires or imprinting woe upon a snowy chill.

The most secret thoughts can attain the most solitary, Earthly spot.
Building or destroying a future (for better or for worse), thought by thought.

An entire Universe is wrought this way ...for our thoughts formulate our fate.
While Love brings more Love... Anger brings only more Hate.
